Message from the Village Fête and Festival Chairperson

Hello one and all,

We're hoping that this year's Fête and Festival will be the start of a "new look" Village get together, to be celebrated each year on the Village Green.

We've taken a long hard look at what people might want to see and do, at their village event, and hope, this being our first attempt, that we have ticked a few boxes.

So, please grab your deckchairs and picnic blankets, and come and join us, and have some fun! And, show some support for your Village on this new venture.

Hopefully, the good old English weather will be kind to us and we've put in a special request for a lovely sunny day. 😊

I would like to take this opportunity, to thank all the Companies that helped us with their sponsorship money and support for the Fête and Festival.

Also, a big thank you to the volunteers that helped put on today's event.

Hope you have a great day.

Short Stories

A L Patwardhan – 11 years old

The man who fell from the sky

Once upon a time in a dark, cold, misty night there lay a man with brown musty hair and old scrappy T-shirt and blue boot cut trousers. But how on earth did he get there? This story, well let's just say is quite complicated I guess I'll have to start from the beginning.

There once lived a boy in a family his name was Kyle. At a very young age Kyle was diagnosed with Autism. He would often shout and scream but really no one knew why. This young boy, only aged 11, loved space and always wished to become an astronaut but not everything goes according to plan. Kyle goes to school 4 days a week, on Friday he stays at his doctor for looking after and also goes to a club called Relax kids where he can relax to calm himself down.

School

"Good morning Kyle" said Mr Morgan.

"G... G... Good morning" replied Kyle in a stuttering voice. Science was his favourite lesson and usually got between 90% and 100% on his tests. Life was hard for this smart boy. He would see things differently to others. Like a typical high school movie he got bullied, names being called, sometimes it even went a bit physical like pulling his ear or slap across the face. But the worst thing they did was ruin his dreams of being an astronaut.

"You'll never be an astronaut, only normal people can achieve their dreams" screamed Michael, the bully. This boys life – Kyle – is too long to explain all the dull and boring parts lets tell you of the story of him aged 45.

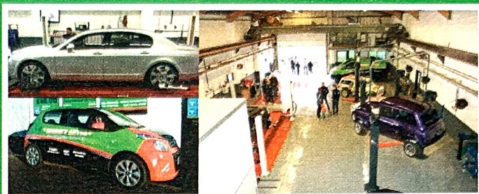

34 Years later

Kyle Roger Davis turned out to surprise many. A handsome yet autistic man; a successful man still autistic; an astronaut YET STILL AUTISITIC! Him being autistic was the thing that surprised most people, the reason why I had skipped to 34 years later was because this was the year he would to to space...

"TAKE OFF IN 5, 4, 3, 2, 1!" shouted the mission instructor. This was the sound of space ship taking off but on the same day something extraordinary happened, Kyle Davis went out of the ship more than a thousand metres off the earths atmosphere. Falling right down onto Earth, going right back to the beginning of the story...
